Greeting of the week

xin chào

It means:

It means, hello how are you in Vietnamese, which is a language that is spoken in Vietnam in South-East Asia.

Reading – Isaiah 25:4

‘For You have been a defence for the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat.’

Walk with Amal

Little Amal, a young refugee, has embarked on a remarkable journey – an epic voyage that is taking her across Turkey, across Europe. To find her mother. To get back to school. To start a new life. She wants a home where she can sleep safely in her bed. Will the world let her? Can she achieve what now seems more impossible than ever?

SOME Amazing MIGRATING ANIMAL FACTS

EMPEROR PENGUINS

can walk across 125 miles of ice every year to find the best place to lay their eggs.

ARCTIC TERNS

are birds that will fly a distance equal to 60 times around the world during their lifetime.

Why do people migrate?

Human migration often happens when there is a combination of "push factors" and "pull factors".

Push FACTORS

are the reasons people might leave their homes.

These could be:

- LACK OF SAFETY
- HIGH CRIME
- CROP FAILURE
- NATURAL DISASTERS
- FLOODING
- DROUGHT
- POVERTY
- WAR
- RELIGIOUS PERSECUTION
- LACK OF SERVICES
(e.g. hospitals & education)

Pull FACTORS

are the reasons people might be encouraged to move to a new area.

These could be:

- BETTER CLIMATE
- MORE FERTILE LAND TO FARM
- MORE FOOD
- BETTER SERVICES
(e.g. hospitals & education)
- LOWER RISK FROM NATURAL HAZARDS AND DISASTER
- MORE WEALTH
- MORE JOBS
- LESS CRIME

1 little girl & 1 giant path of hope

PH AMAPOLA CHIANESE

Some questions....

- What difficulties will Amal face along the way?
- What will she be hoping for along the way?
- What great qualities do you think she might have?
- If she came to St. Mary's how would we welcome her?

Join Mrs Tildesley in the Hub on Monday to make welcome bunting for Amal!

Walk with Amal

As Amal walks from the Syria-Turkey border all the way to the UK, we ask the world not to forget about children who have had to flee their homes because of war or other reasons beyond their control. These refugees and asylum seekers are children just like you. Children of the world – the future!

REFLECTION

- Try to treat everyone that we meet with respect.
- If we treat someone with respect, they are much more likely to treat us with respect.
- Everyone deserves to be treated with respect.

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.
