

Bible story links (numbers in brackets are page numbers from the Lion Bible for children):

1. God's creation (p16-19) - this story can be used to help us reflect on the Responsibility that we all have for the environment and animals, and how we can care for the world.
2. Adam and Eve (p16-19) - the story of the garden of Eden connects to the Responsibility that we should give to God's creation. There are also reflections on taking Responsibility for choices.
3. Joshua (p99) - being a leader.
4. Samuel (p121-122) - Samuel is given responsibility to work in the temple and share God's message
5. Nehemiah and Ezra (p202-206) - The Israelites were exiled to Babylon and Jerusalem fell into ruin. Nehemiah asked the king for permission to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the walls - he was taking responsibility. Ezra took responsibility for leading a group of exiles from Babylon back to Jerusalem. He reminded people of God's message and the law of Moses.
6. Jesus shares the loaves and fishes (feeding the five thousand) (p259) - Jesus was attracting large crowds of followers and he took responsibility for feeding them
7. Pentecost and beyond - the apostles are responsible for growing the Church and spreading the Good News from God (p304-305).
